

Regarding this Comparison

We have compiled these figures based on each mortuary's current General Price List as of March 15, 2024. Mortuaries do not always use the same terms. When comparing prices, it is important to ask what is and is not included in a quoted price. In addition to mortuary charges, you may have other expenses, which are usually referred to as "cash advance" items. These include such things as minister honorariums, certified copies of death certificates and permit fees. The Cemetery and Funeral Bureau says "it is beneficial to compare prices and services to ensure you are getting what you want" As prices are subject to change, we encourage you to contact the mortuary of your choice for their General Price List of current offerings.
